BAJARIA & FORGERSON LAW GROUP

AMANDA SCHWARTZ SENIOR COUNSEL

214.888.3070
aschwartz@bflawgroup.com

Amanda represents individuals, business owners, mid-size companies, homeowners, real estate investors, and entrepreneurs when they are involved in pre-suit negotiations and litigation, including business divorces, fraud in real estate, construction defects, insurance policy opinions and personal injury. Amanda has helped secure favorable verdicts, summary judgements, and settlements for her clients. Amanda practices primarily in Texas state and federal courts.

EDUCATION

- SMU Dedman School of Law, Juris Doctorate, 2005
  - Order of the Coif
  - Top 10%
- University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, BA in Political Science, with honors, 2001

ADMISSIONS

- Licensed to practice law in Texas, 2005 to present
- Licensed to practice in the Eastern District of Texas, 2019-present
- Texas Bar Association
- Dallas Bar Association
- Texas Association of Defense Counsel
- Higginbotham Inn of Courts 2006-2007
- Certified Mediator

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

- Secured a verdict exceeding $10.5 million in a Dram Shop jury trial representing the family of the deceased victim.
- Successfully represented a subcontractor in the Interstate 635 Lyndon B. Johnson expansion project, countering allegations of damage to homes along the corridor.
- Defended franchisees in a lengthy trial involving leases and franchise agreements, achieving a favorable verdict.
- Won an appeal in the Supreme Court of Oklahoma related to a discovery dispute.
- Played a key role in obtaining a favorable appellate ruling in the Texas Supreme Court and Fort Worth Court of Appeals.
- Represents defrauded investors in a North Dallas real estate investment fund against a prominent real estate developer, involving claims under the Texas Securities Act and other legal grounds.
- Obtained a summary judgment in favor of a property management company accused of responsibility for a contractor's injury.
- Successfully challenged a motion for over three hundred thousand in attorney fees, reducing it to less than fifty thousand dollars.
- Secured full dismissal of claims after the deposition of an opposing party in a negligence case.
- Obtained a favorable settlement in a case against the manufacturer of a trailer for injuries related to an explosion.
- Defended subcontractors in construction defects claims related to the construction of a school in Maypearl, Texas.
- Achieved a successful verdict against a valet car service for damages.
- Obtained a favorable verdict in a Denton County case involving fraud in real estate.